Hope and Humanity: Alabama Connections to the Holocaust

Alabama Holocaust Education Center, Birmingham
June 25-27, 2024

Dawn Howard, Shelby County Schools
Amy MacDonald, Alabama Holocaust Education Center

Through primary sources, guest speakers, and experiential learning opportunities, participants in this workshop will gain a deeper understanding of World War II and the Holocaust and their connections to Birmingham. Participants will examine the history of Alabama's Jewish population and their contributions to our state's economy, politics, and society. In this workshop, educators will learn strategies and skills for incorporating the Holocaust and other difficult topics into their classroom instruction.
